Old Mr. Dollar is Getting to be Worth 100 Cents Again

Chicago, April 4.—That sturdy old friend, the American dollar, is coming back and displacing the miserable 32 cent imitation that has been posing as a dollar for the last three or four years. Here are some evidences that Mr. Dollar is functioning again.

The dollar today will buy ten pounds of sugar. The dollar of 1920 bought only three and three-fourths pounds.

The dollar now buys twenty pounds of rice as against six pounds in 1920.

The dollar now buys sixty pounds of potatoes as against eleven and one-half in 1920; sixteen and two-thirds pounds of navy beans as against eleven and three-quarters, a year ago; four dozen eggs, as against one dozen a year ago; three pounds of butter, as against one pound a year ago and one-half pounds of coffee as against one and one-quarter pounds of the same brand a year ago.

The old dollar will also buy three times as much clothing, and better clothing, twice as many shoes, a third more coal and nearly twice as much flour, lard, fruit and some varieties of meats. It will, in some instances, buy five or six times as many vegetables.

That dependable old friend, the nickel, is also staging a comeback. During the war the nickel was rare by heart of. It would buy nothing, not even a Sunday paper or the cheapest sort of cigar; but now many articles that formerly sold for a nickel are back at the old stand and doing a thriving business.

mond Theatre today and tomorrow, when "Scrambled Wives," starring dainty little Marguerite Clark in her first independent production, will be the attraction. This production also marks Miss Clark's return to the screen after an absence of a year following her marriage, and many admirers in this city who have missed the petite and winsome star will have an opportunity to see her in the sort of part that has endeared her to the hearts of motion picture fans in all corners of the globe. "Scrambled Wives" was a bit last season on the stage, playing to long engagements in both Chicago and New York, and, according to all indications, the screen version is going to be equally successful. The complications which result from Mary's efforts to hide a "terrible past" make this one of the most amusing and delightful photoplays of a decade.

INGOMAR THEATRE

Neal Hart's latest picture in his great outdoor series is said to be the best he has ever made. It is a story of the great Northwest, replete with thrills and excitement. The story dates back to the days of the Chippewa Indians and their mythical belief in the spirit of the aurora borealis, which led them from darkness to light; from hunger to plenty.

The picture is entitled "Skyfire," and is unique for the reason that it shows what very few persons have even seen—the glow of the Northern Lights in the sky. This was accomplished by means of special electrical equipment.

The picture, "Skyfire," will be seen at the Ingomar Theatre tonight.

Bootleggers Threaten

To Finish Man They Shot

Buffalo, N. Y., April 4.—Members of the gang of bootleggers who shot and painfully wounded Wm. Welch, amateur "deputy sheriff," son of Dr. C. E. Welch, millionaire grape juice manufacturer of Westfield, near here, have written the wounded man threatening to return to Westfield and kill him, together with other prohibitionists in the village.

The threat is contained in the following letter, written in pencil and on a sheet of ordinary note paper, postmarked New York.

"We are sorry we did not get you the first time. We will be back within a few days to finish the job. We intend to finish you and all other prohibitionists around here who do not know enough to keep out of other people's business. We are sorry we missed our mark and will be back within a few days to get you."

(Signed) "One of the Gang." Welch announced today that he has no intention of leaving up his fight against bootleggers in Chautauque county as a result of the shooting and threat. His wounds are fast healing.
